

V8 Two Day Highland Tour 2013 – photo report

Dinner at the Dundonnell Hotel. The tradition of eight 4 minutes toasts was popular – The Queen (Peter Ellis), the MG Car Club (Ken Clayton), the V8 Register (Victor Smith), the Ladies (Alan Dakeyne), the First Motion Shaft (Mike Lane), Absent Friends (Walter Kallenberg) who mentioned John Targett in the US recovering from a major surgical operation and Alan Kingwell undergoing a kidney transplant, the Destruction of the Midge (Mark Randle) and our Friends from Overseas (Chris Yates). Katharina and Bruno Dürr and Peter and Brigitte Huber.

Brigitte Kallenberg proposed a toast to Angela Merkel on the second evening with other toasts from Annie Yates (Prince George), Chris Gabriel (the Highlands) and David Stonehouse (Assynt).

Two RV8 models were generously donated by Derek Matthews and were very well received, here one presented to Katharina Dürr.

David and Veronica Stonehouse.

Walter and Brigitte Kallenberg and Bruno Wüstoff.

Andreas Gloor (who was on the tour with his RV8) presented the V8 Register with a trophy from the Swiss V8 Register.

V8 Two Day Highland Tour 2013 – photo report

Ken Clayton proposes a toast to the MG Car Club with Peter Jung alongside.

V8 35th Anniversary Mug.

Chris Yates presented Victor Smith with a special mug celebrating the 35th anniversary of his formation of the V8 Register in 1978. Above Annie Yates and Mark Randle.

Jean Ellis

Photos: Mario Kloostra

Robert MacGillivray speaking at the European Event of the Year at Aviemore – the planning and organisation of that event was excellent and the hard work by the team with the generous support of their wives and friends.

V8 Two Day Highland Tour 2013 – photo report

Swiss V8 Register trophy.

V8 Two Day Highland Tour 2013 – photo report

Sunset down Little Loch Broom