

Visit to the Black Country Living Museum at Dudley – Saturday 9th April 2015

Outside the Providence Chapel (44) the congregation were singing in the sunshine celebrating an anniversary of the Methodists arriving many years ago.

Trolley Bus – a quiet form of public transport from another era.

The Conway Garage (21) – servicing cars and motorcycles

Fish & chips were popular at Hobbs & Sons Restaurant (24).

Visit to the Black Country Living Museum at Dudley – Saturday 9th April 2015

Debbie Brading, Marion Quarrington wait to taste the fish & chips with Nic Houslip.

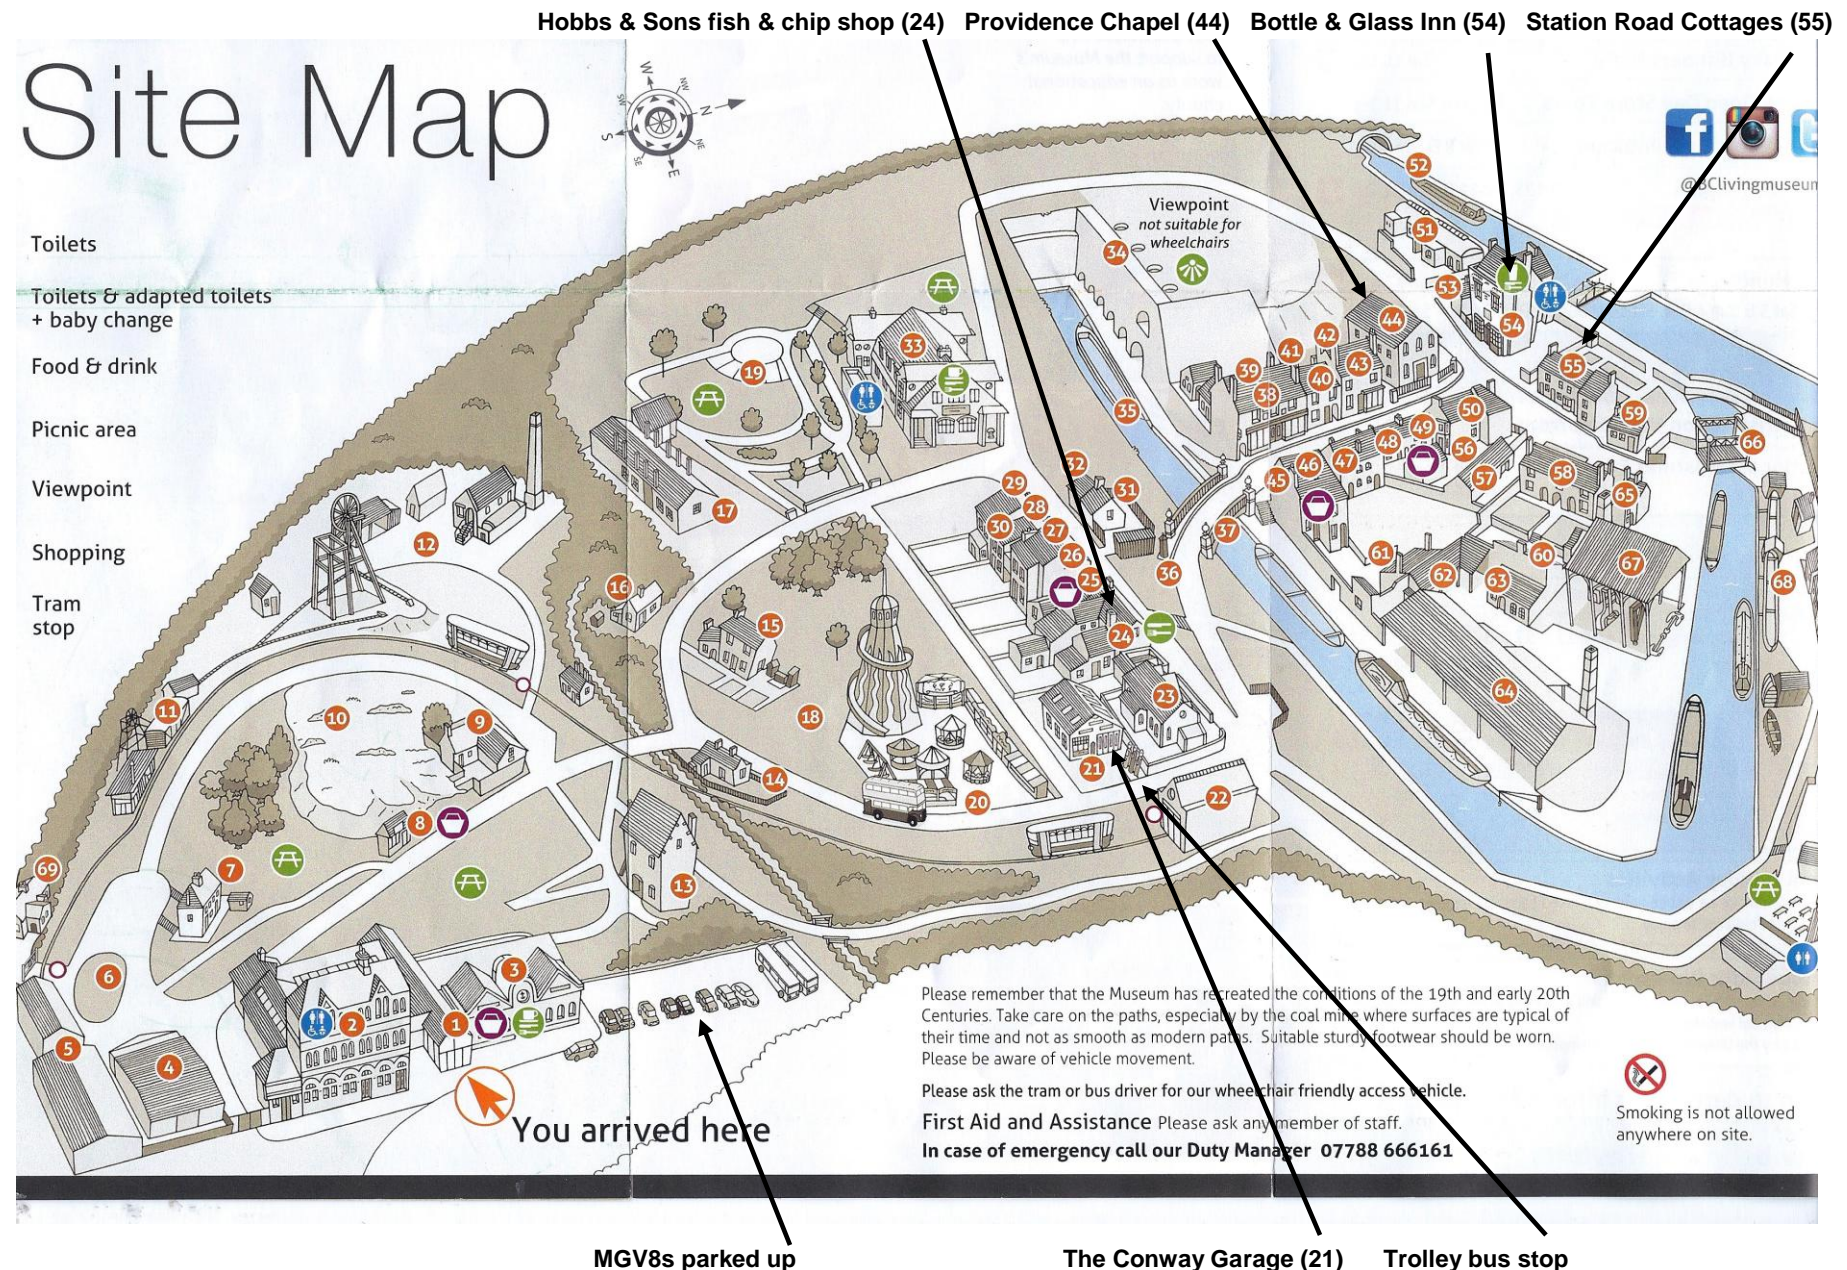

Station Road Cottages (55) with a lady sitting in the sunshine.

The Bottle & Glass Inn (54) conveniently placed facing the chapel.

Visit to the Black Country Living Museum at Dudley – Saturday 9th April 2015

Visit to the Black Country Living Museum at Dudley – Saturday 9th April 2015

Barry West posted two photos on the V8 Register Facebook page saying “Really nice to meet the V8 register people at The Black Country Living Museum today our first event and made to feel most welcome. Thanks to Steve Newton for organising it.”

