

Installing twin relays to protect the headlamp switches

With MGBGTV8s now approaching the 50 year milestone, modifications that help preserve electrical components like switches are well worth considering as they are not difficult to install or costly. Here we have a useful upgrade using twin modern relays to take the load and potential damage off the light switches. The photo shows the twin relays mounted on the offside inner wing next to one of the 6RA relays.

See our illustrated guide to installing the headlamps relays kit supplied by Moss Europe as V8NOTE576

See the wiring layout of the twin relays kits supplied by Moss Europe <https://www.v8register.net/subpages/V8NOTE576.htm>

Installation guide supplied with the twin relays kit from Moss Europe https://www.moss-europe.co.uk/media/pdf/117-515_instructions.pdf